Resumption of community activities in compliance with government health measures

Reopening of community centres

The Municipality will reopen its three Community centres as of Saturday, August 1, 2020.

The public will once again be able to rent halls at the Luskville and Quyon Community centres as well as the Quyon Women's Institute.

However, citizens must comply with the health measures imposed by the government, on the day of the event. The Municipality reserves the right to cancel the rental at any time in the event that new government measures prevent or would be highly likely to prevent the possibility of holding a gathering on the day of the event. To rent a hall, citizens are invited to follow the usual procedure which is to fill out the form requesting the rental, verify the availability of the hall by calling 819-455-2401, and paying for the said rental as well as the security deposit in advance to secure the booking.

Reopening of libraries

The Municipality will reopen its libraries in Luskville and Quyon on Wednesday, August 5, 2020. Hours of operation have been changed as follows, until further notice:

Luskville

Wednesday : 6:30 pm – 8:30 pm

Quyon

Monday and Wednesday:
6 pm – 8:30 pm

Visitors arriving on the premises must wear the face cover and follow the various government health measures that will be indicated.

Book returns

At all times (24 hours a day, 7 days a week) exclusively in the drop-off box.

Council meeting on August 25, 2020
